

Grandview Ord, Nebraska

To provide compassionate assistance while promoting dignity and Independence

Elery King - Takes From His

Wall to Give From His Heart

AJ Keith says of her Dad and Grandview, "you are his home." "I am one of those family members that lives 400 miles away and I just can't be here as I would like." AJ & Bill Keith are Elery King's daughter and son-in-law who live in Colorado. For those that don't know, Elery King's apartment at Grandview is (was) covered with his personal paintings. This month, Elery decided to give all of his paintings away. But, not just to any-

AJ Keith says of her Dad and Grandview, "you are his home."

one. Elery gave his paintings to the staff at Grandview. At an afternoon event AJ & Bill displayed all of Elery's paintings in Grandview's dining room. Residents attended, then through a drawing, Elery proceeded to give his paintings away. In all, Elery gave away 18 paintings to staff. When asked if he is finished painting, Elery says , "no, I have a few more paintings to do so that no one at Grandview is left out. "AJ comments, "Dad, thinks of all of you as family and he just wanted to show you his appreciation through his gifts."

Staff, Carolyn Hulinsky with her painting from Elery

Carol Boutin & Tammy Carstens with Elery and their paintings

Marty Kollasch and Evelyn Osentowski with Elery

Chris Wadas and Ellie Piskorski with Elery

Congratulations... Our own Marcia Reznicek has been nominated for "Employee of the Year" to be selected at this year's "Annual Chamber of Commerce Awards Banquet". Marcia said, "you should see who is nominated! I am honored just to be a part of that group." For more than the 150 people representing staff, residents, & families at Grandview, Marcia, you already are the winner... good luck!

Char Wagner and Lil Stelik

2006 Grandview Volunteer Supper

“I always think that I am the one that is giving my time, but every time I leave Grandview I know the residents at Grandview are the ones giving to me,” states Mary Ellen Setlik, volunteer for Rosary at Grandview. Marcia Reznicek, Assistant Administrator, believes that volunteers give at least 500 hours a year of their time. This month it was Grandview’s turn to give back. The first week into January Chris Wadas and her kitchen guru’s whipped up a “Thank you” feast for over 75 Grandview volunteers. Marcia said that she heard numerous guests’ compliments, and “I am still hearing them!” Everyone really appreciated being invited to Grandview. All volunteer’s talked about is how they love coming to Grandview. Marcia continues, “some even indicated that Grandview is their favorite place to come and volunteer”. Our volunteers are most appreciated, thank you to all!

The Red Hats together at Grandview’s Appreciation Supper

ones giving to me,” states Mary Ellen Setlik, volunteer for Rosary at Grandview. Marcia Reznicek, Assistant Administrator, believes that volunteers give at least 500 hours a year of their time. This month it was Grandview’s turn to give back. The first week into January Chris Wadas and her kitchen guru’s whipped up a “Thank you” feast for over 75 Grandview volunteers. Marcia said that she heard numerous guests’ compliments, and “I am still hearing them!” Everyone really appreciated being invited to Grandview. All

Chuck Fox and Carolyn Mentzer, Grandview Volunteers

Elda Anderson – Welcome to Grandview

Elda Anderson is our newest resident at Grandview Assisted Living. Elda was from a large family of 8 brothers and sisters. She was born in Kansas and then moved here with her family to Ord, where her grandmother lived, when she was around 15 or 16.

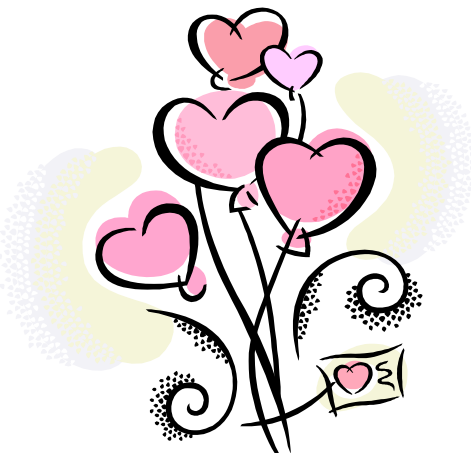

After graduating from Ord High School Elda started working in different places, mostly doing cleaning. Later Elda worked nights at the hospital, she said, “close to 30 years”. Elda talks about delivering many babies throughout her time at the hospital, she said, “doctors just couldn’t make it on time.” Elda continued, “I was always so glad when it was over!” Elda did all of her work at the hospital without formal training, she said, “we learned how to do a lot on our own”. Today Elda enjoys crocheting clothes hangers; she indicates that she has crocheted hundreds. Elda likes to read, and she loves her view at Grandview, “I got a most beautiful view, even horses.” It’s great having you at Grandview Elda!

Shareholders Meeting

- February 23, 2006
- Thursday
- 2:00 pm

Board of Directors Meeting to Follow

Happy Valentine’s Day!