KING KRCILEK AND QUEEN WIBERG

Joe Krcilek and Leona Wiberg were picked to be king and queen. They made a very nice royalty for the evening. The entertainment was provided by Betty and Rudy Vodehnal with a skit. The skit was a romantic comedy. Betty questioned Rudy on their dating experience and Rudy had difficulty remembering the right answers. Frank Andreesen sang and played the piano. The kitchen staff provided a wonderful meal that included; almond crusted pork tenderloin with cranberry sauce, squash, peas with pearl onions and an awesome dessert. We appreciate the hard work from staff and volunteers to make this evening special.

VALENTINE, BE MINE!

On Tuesday, February 12th, the residents were asked to invite a loved one or friend to the Valentine Tea.

Everyone enjoyed the afternoon with an awesome dessert, chocolate rhapsody. The tables carried out the Valentine theme. Amy Hornickel provided the entertainment. She sang and read a lovely poem in dedication for the special thanks to mothers and their unconditional love. There were approximately 80 people for the tea and everyone had a great time.

GRANDVIEW GOES TO POT!

OH WHAT A SIGHT... The week of Valentine's was quite a change. There were toilets lined up in the hallways. The downstairs apartments were getting a new look of flooring in the bathrooms. We certainly had different looks from visitors. The first task was making sure that all the residents knew where the closest available bathroom was and how to get there in the shortest time. It was hectic and confusing at first, but once in the groove it went smooth. They look great!

GIRL SCOUT REACHES SILVER AWARD..

Annie Setlik, an eighth grader at St. Mary's school, made wall hangings for all the residents.

On February 20th, Annie displayed all her hangings and the residents chose which one they would like to have hung in their apartments. Annie made approximately 45 wall hangings and it took her 8 to 9 months. This is the second highest award a Girl Scout can earn. Thanks Annie for choosing Grandview!

Congratulations to Jody Lawrence and Amy Goodrich!

We are celebrating for two different reasons. Jody Lawrence had a baby, Alyssa in January. She weighed over 8lbs and is a healthy girl. She joins her older sister, Savannah at home. Jody is a full time night shift med aide and we really appreciate her.

Amy Goodrich has worked at Grandview for over a year as a server in the kitchen. Amy is getting married March 8th. She will be making her new home in Omaha. I don't think there is any convincing her to stay, she has found her prince.

Congratulations and we wish you both well!
