"A Home for All Seasons"

WELCOME FERN

Fern Rama came to Grandview last month. Fern moved to the Ord area about 5 years ago. She lived in Broken Bow for over 30 years. She has one daughter, Pauline Grooms, 5 grandchildren and 15 great. She had a son that is deceased. Fern enjoys watching sports, crocheting and gardening. She has been widowed for over 30 years and has been a very independent lady. She worked for Dickenson's for 16 years and retired in 1984. After retirement, she began babysitting for grandchildren. Fern has had her share of hardship, but keeps a positive attitude. Fern seems to be enjoying Grandview and we are glad to have her as part of our family. Fern said, "I enjoy everything here." She commented how nice it is to spend time with friends and feels it's a great place to live.

THE GAZEBO IS COMPLETE!

We are excited to have the new addition to Grandview. The residents are pleased to have a place outdoors that they can enjoy, without sitting directly in the sun. The sidewalk goes around it, so walkers can safely be used. We are planning to add some colorful flowers and furniture to make it divine. All we need now is some nice weather.

CCD KIDS PROVIDE ENTERTAINMENT

On April 9th, approximately 12 CCD students from the Catholic church came to play cards, games, pool and visit with the residents. Julie Streff and Renee Carr were sponsors for the evening. This has been a yearly event for the last few years. The residents take pleasure in having the students come to visit. Refreshments were served to complete the evening.

Rosie Pesek and Melvin Moravec enjoy refreshments with Andrea Estudillo

Eugene Novotny and Irene Dockhorn enjoy punch with some of the CCD kids

APRONS

Karen Hawley was a guest speaker on April 7th. Karen is well known for all the aprons she has collected for years. She has a story behind most of the aprons. There were aprons of different sizes and colors. Karen has shared her story about her collection with many organizations. A few staff members were lucky to receive an apron from Karen as a remembrance. Her and her husband, Glen are residence of North Loup.

On April 28th, the Valley Harmonizers presented a program of singing for us. In February when they presented their show at the Catholic Church, it was flu time, so we were unable to attend. We so appreciated them taking time for us. Some of the songs they presented to the public were sang. It was a great program!
